			Register. Courses leading to registration or enrolment (or authorisation as nurse practitioner) are scrutinised by the Board through its committees the Board can attest that the courses are of an established standard. Scrutinising numerous post-registration courses including those conducted in other states other countries would be very resource-intensive the Board has not done this since 1988. Being unable to satisfy itself of the standard of post-registration qualifications, the Board has not directed that post-registration qualifications be entered in the Register. Courses leading to enrolment in List B of the Roll (mothercraft nursing) were the 15 to 18 month 'direct entry' courses which have not been conducted since approximately 1990.
